Joyful Noise in the Neighborhood
Sunday, September 12, 2010
1:00 to 4:30 p.m.

What is it?

Our Des Moines area mission-action group, LCMS Lutherans in Mission and Service, is coordinating support for an outdoor concert event on the campus of Trinity Lutheran Church, 3223 University, Des Moines.

Andrew Witt, a young Christian musician, is the featured artist. In addition, there will be local Christian music groups*, ministry booths, inflatables for the children, and games and activities for all ages.

What are the goals of this event?

- To share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with those who don't know Him and encourage those who do.
- To raise public awareness of Trinity Lutheran Church and Trinity's desire to share the love of Jesus with their community.
- To create a culture of cooperation in missions and outreach among Des Moines East Circuit and Des Moines West Circuit congregations for the sake of the Kingdom.
- To raise awareness of the diversity of cultures within the unity that exists through faith in Christ.

Share the day with us at Trinity, including outdoor worship at 10:00!
